4. Ken BeLieu, Staff Director of the Senate Space Committee, called to say that the "squeeze" was being put on him in connection with the question put to the Director at the Space and Preparedness briefings in March concerning the specific dates on which the Director briefed the National Security Council on IRBMs and ICBMs. He added that it would be necessary for him to have a response by Monday morning, if we intended to make one. Otherwise, it will be necessary for him to indicate that the Agency had not made an official response to this query. This conversation was reported to [redacted] who then discussed that matter with the Director. An appropriate response is being prepared.
